

		The 7 Well-Being Goals ; Well-Being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015
		A prosperous Wales	A resilient Wales	A healthier Wales	A more equal Wales	A Wales of cohesive communities	A Wales of vibrant culture and thriving Welsh language	A globally responsible Wales
Gwynedd & Anglesey Well-Being Plan 2018	Priorities	The need to maintain a healthy community spirit Neutral – the proposal is that the golf course will be sold as a small-holding Neutral – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use for the golfing community to enable an entry level access into the game	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses, end users and different levels of ability and income	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and end-users and different levels of ability and income Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use by the golfing community to enable an entry level	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use for the golfing community and the service is bilingual	Neutral

				access into the game Negative –the golfing provision was cheaper than the private clubs and therefore more accessible. Negative – Some of the users may not have access to transport. Concessionary travel schemes are available on Anglesey and further information can be found on the County Council website
The importance of protecting the natural environment	Positive – the proposal is that the golf course will be sold as a small-holding therefore the	Neutral – the proposal is that the golf course will be sold as a small-holding therefore the	Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use by	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure	Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use by the golfing community	Neutral

	natural environment will be safeguarded and will revert back to agricultural use	natural environment will be safeguarded and will revert back to agricultural use	the golfing community Any sale will see a small-holding being created	Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-users for all in the community, and end-users and different levels of ability and income Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use by the golfing community to enable an entry level access into the game Negative – The provision was cheaper than the private clubs and therefore more accessible.	Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-users for all in the community	Our small-holding tenants and occupiers are predominantly Welsh speakers Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities where a bilingual service is offered to our communities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-users and end-users. Whilst baselining of Welsh speaking users isn't collected all services at the Leisure Facilities are bilingual.
--	---	---	---	---	--	--	--

Gwynedd & Anglesey Well-Being Plan 2018 Priorities

				Negative – Some of the users may not have access to transport should they wish to play golf rather than the driving range. Concessionary travel schemes are available on Anglesey and further information can be found on the County Council website
Understanding the effect of demographic changes	Neutral	Neutral	Neutral – The driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for the golfing community which will promote a healthier lifestyle and access into sports	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-users, end-users and	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities where a bilingual service is offered to our communities which can cater for a more diverse	Neutral

			Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and end-users	different levels of ability, ages and income Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use by the golfing community Negative The provision was cheaper than the private clubs and therefore more accessible. Negative – Some of the users may not have access to transport. Concessionary travel schemes are available on Anglesey and further information can be found		range of end-uses and end-users. Whilst baselining of Welsh speaking users isn't collected all services at the Leisure Facilities are bilingual.
--	--	--	---	--	--	---	--

				on the County Council website
Protecting and promoting the Welsh language	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and of which the service is offered bilingually	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities where a bilingual service is offered to our communities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses. Whilst baselining of Welsh speaking users isn't collected all services at the Leisure Facilities are bilingual. Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open where a bilingual	Neutral

Gwynedd & Anglesey Well-Being Plan 2018 Priorities

						service is offered
Promoting the use of natural resources to improve health and well-being in the long-term	Positive – the proposal is that the golf course will be sold as a small-holding. This will ensure the natural environment of the area remains but can also provide employment opportunities	Positive – the proposal is that the golf course will be sold as a small-holding. This will ensure the agricultural sector remains strong on Anglesey and creates opportunities	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses, end-users and different levels of ability and income Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use by the golfing community Negative – The provision was cheaper than the private clubs and therefore	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses for all in the community	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities where a bilingual service is offered to our communities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses. Whilst baselining of Welsh speaking users isn't collected all services at the Leisure Facilities are bilingual.	Neutral

				more accessible. Negative – Some of the users may not have access to transport. Concessionary travel schemes are available on Anglesey and further information can be found on the County Council website
Improving transport links to enable access to services and facilities	Neutral	Neutral	Neutral – by re-investing in our Leisure Facilities – which are in our major towns and well served by all transport modes – it secures their long term viability and the	Negative – Some of the users may not have access to transport. Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities – which are in our major	Neutral	Neutral – by re-investing in our Leisure Facilities – which are in our major towns and well served by all transport modes – it secures their long term viability and the offering through the	Neutral

			offering to end-users of all incomes, ages and ability	towns and well served by all transports modes – which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses, end-users and different levels of ability and income		medium of Welsh
The need for good quality jobs and affordable homes for local people	Positive – the proposal is that the golf course will be sold as a small-holding. It is hoped this will attract local people who wish to remain on Anglesey and establish an agricultural business or expand their current business	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities securing their long-term viability and the jobs of people who work there	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities securing their long-term viability and the jobs of people who work there	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities which cater for end-users of all incomes and also securing the long-term viability and the jobs of people who work there Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities securing their long-term viability and the jobs of people who work there	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities where a bilingual service is offered to our communities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Neutral

				for use to the golfing community
The effect of poverty on well-being	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Positive – whilst the County Council will be disposing of the golf course land, the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open and capital from surplus assets reinvested into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and end-users	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and end-users on all incomes Positive – the driving range (Golf Môn) will remain open for use to the golfing community	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses for all in the community	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities securing their long-term viability and the jobs of people who work there	Neutral

Gwynedd & Anglesey Well-Being Plan 2018 Priorities

Ensuring an opportunity for every child to succeed	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses Significant work is being done to promote golf via the driving range (Golf Môn)facility	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and provides various healthy options for all age ranges	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and provides various healthy options for all age ranges	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and provides various healthy options for all age ranges as well as individuals on all incomes Negative – Private golf club fees are more expensive and potentially less inclusive	Positive – the County Council will reinvest capital from surplus assets into its Leisure Facilities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses and provides various healthy options for all in the community	Positive – Any capital funding will be reinvested in our Leisure Facilities where a bilingual service is offered to our communities which can cater for a more diverse range of end-uses	Neutral
--	--	---	---	--	---	---	----------------