Arrangements for the payment of salaries, allowances and fees to members are set out in Part 6 of the Isle of Anglesey County Council's Constitution. With regard to the payment of co-opted members:

- Reasonable time for pre meeting preparation is eligible to be included in claims made by co-opted members, the extent of which can be determined by the appropriate officer in advance of the meeting.
- Travelling time to and from the place of the meeting can be included in the claims for payments made by co-opted members (up to the maximum of the daily rate).
- The appropriate officer within the authority can determine in advance whether a meeting is programmed for a full day and the fee will be paid on the basis of this determination even if the meeting finishes before four hours has elapsed.
- Meetings eligible for the payment of fee include other committees and working groups (including task and finish groups) or any other formal meeting to which co-opted members are requested to attend.

Role descriptions of Senior Salary office holders and ordinary members have been issued to members and are published on the Council's website.

Records are kept of councillor attendance.

Annual reports have been prepared by members and the reports have been published on the Council's website.
