You must read this policy because it gives important information about:

- the data protection principles with which Anglesey County Council must comply;
- what is meant by personal data and special categories of personal data ;
- how we gather, use and (ultimately) delete personal data and special categories of data in accordance with the data protection principles;
- where more detailed privacy information can be found, e.g. about the personal data we gather and use about you, how it is used, stored and transferred, for what purposes, the steps taken to keep that information secure and for how long it is kept;
- your rights and obligations in relation to data protection; and
- the consequences of failure to comply with this policy.

1. POLICY STATEMENT

- 1.1 Isle of Anglesey County Council is fully committed to compliance with the requirements of The General Data Protection Regulation which came into force on 25 May 2018.
- 1.2 This policy sets out how we comply with our data protection obligations and seek to protect personal information relating to our workforce. Its purpose is also to ensure that staff members understand and comply with the rules governing the collection, use and deletion of personal information to which they may have access in the course of their work.
- 1.3 We are committed to complying with our data protection obligations, and to being concise, clear and transparent about how we obtain and use personal information relating to our workforce, and how (and when) we delete that information once it is no longer required.
- 1.4 The Council's Data Protection Officer, is responsible for informing and advising the Council and its staff on its data protection obligations, and for monitoring compliance with those obligations and with the Council's policies. If you have any questions or comments about the content of this policy or if you need further information, you should contact the Data Protection Officer.
- 1.5 Any breach of this policy will be taken seriously and may result in disciplinary action and financial sanctions.
- 1.6 In order to operate efficiently, the Council has to collect and use information about people with whom it works. These may include members of the public, current, past and prospective employees and or workers, clients and customers, and suppliers. In addition it may be required by law to collect and use information in order to comply with the requirements of central government.

1.7 This personal information must be handled and dealt with properly, however it is collected, recorded and used, and whether it be on paper, in computer records or recorded by any other means.

1.8 The Council regards the lawful and correct treatment of personal information as very important to its successful operations and to maintaining confidence between the Council and those for whom it provides / arranges services and those with whom it carries out business. The Council will ensure that it treats personal information lawfully and correctly.

2. SCOPE

2.1 This policy applies to the personal information of job applicants, current and former staff, including employees, temporary and agency workers, interns, volunteers and apprentices, clients, customers, and suppliers.

2.2 Staff should refer to Anglesey County Council's Data Protection Policy and, where appropriate, to other relevant guidance and policies including in relation to internet, email and communications, monitoring, social media, information security, data retention, and criminal record information, which contain further information regarding the protection of personal information in those contexts.

2.3 We will review and update this policy regularly in accordance with our data protection obligations. It does not form part of any employee's contract of employment. We may amend, update or supplement it from time to time and we will circulate any new or modified policy to staff when it is adopted.

3. DEFINITIONS

criminal records information	means personal information relating to criminal convictions and offences, allegations, proceedings, and related security measures;
data breach	means a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal information;
data subject	means the individual to whom the personal information relates;
personal data	means information relating to an individual who can be identified (directly or indirectly) from that information;
processing information	means obtaining, recording, organising, storing, amending, retrieving, disclosing and/or destroying information, or using or doing anything with it;

pseudonymised means the process by which personal information is processed in such a way that it cannot be used to identify an individual without the use of additional information, which is kept separately and subject to technical and organisational measures to ensure that the personal information cannot be attributed to an identifiable individual;

special categories of personal data

means personal information about an individual's race, ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership (or non-membership), genetics information, biometric information (where used to identify an individual) and information concerning an individual's health, sex life or sexual orientation.

- 3.1 Data is information which is stored electronically, on a computer, or in paper-based filing systems.
- 3.2 Data controllers are the people, or organisations, which determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data is processed. They have a responsibility to establish practices and policies in line with the Act. We are the data controller of all personal data used in our business.
- 3.3 Data users include employees whose work involves using personal data. Data users have a duty to protect the information they handle by following our data protection and security policies at all times.
- 3.4 Data processors include any person who processes personal data on behalf of a data controller (other than an employee of the data controller). As noted above, the Council is the data controller and therefore employees of the Council are excluded from this definition. Data Processors therefore could include suppliers which handle personal data on our behalf.

4. DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

- 4.1 The Council will comply with the following data protection principles when processing personal information:
 - 4.1.1 we will process personal data lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner;
 - 4.1.2 we will collect personal data for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes only, and will not process it in a way that is incompatible with those legitimate purposes;
 - 4.1.3 we will only process the personal data that is adequate, relevant and necessary for the relevant purposes;

- 4.1.4 we will keep accurate and up to date personal information, and take reasonable steps to ensure that inaccurate personal information are deleted or corrected without delay;
- 4.1.5 we will keep personal data in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the information is processed; and
- 4.1.6 we will take appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure that personal data are kept secure and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing, and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

5. BASIS FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

5.1 In relation to any processing activity we will, before the processing starts for the first time, and then regularly while it continues:

5.1.1 review the purposes of the particular processing activity, and select the most appropriate lawful basis (or bases) for that processing, i.e.:

5.1.1.1 that the data subject has consented to the processing;

5.1.1.2 that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;

5.1.1.3 that the processing is necessary for the protection of the vital interests of the data subject or another natural person;

5.1.1.4 that the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or exercise of official authority;

5.1.2 except where the processing is based on consent, satisfy ourselves that the processing is necessary for the purpose of the relevant lawful basis (i.e. that there is no other reasonable way to achieve that purpose);

5.1.3 document our decision as to which lawful basis applies, to help demonstrate our compliance with the data protection principles;

5.1.4 include information about both the purposes of the processing and the lawful basis for it in our relevant privacy notice(s);

5.1.5 where sensitive personal information is processed, also identify a lawful special condition for processing that information (see paragraph 5.2.2 below), and document it; and

5.1.6 where criminal offence information is processed, also identify a lawful condition for processing that information, and document it.

5.2 When determining whether Anglesey County Council's legitimate interests are the most appropriate basis for lawful processing, we will:

- 5.2.1 conduct a legitimate interests assessment (LIA) and keep a record of it, to ensure that we can justify our decision;
- 5.2.2 if the LIA identifies a significant privacy impact, consider whether we also need to conduct a data protection impact assessment (DPIA);
- 5.2.3 keep the LIA under review, and repeat it if circumstances change; and
- 5.2.4 include information about our legitimate interests in our relevant privacy notice(s).

6. SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA

6.1 Special categories of personal data' is sometimes referred to as Sensitive personal information 'or 'sensitive personal data'.

6.2 The Council may from time to time need to process sensitive personal information. We will only process sensitive personal information if:

- 6.2.1 we have a lawful basis for doing so as set out in paragraph 5.1.1 above, e.g. it is necessary for the performance of the employment contract, to comply with the Council's legal obligations or for the purposes of the Council's legitimate interests; and
- 6.2.2 one of the special conditions for processing sensitive personal information applies, e.g.:
 - 6.2.2.1 the data subject has given explicit consent;
 - 6.2.2.2 the processing is necessary for the purposes of exercising the employment law rights or obligations of the Council or the data subject;
 - 6.2.2.3 the processing is necessary to protect the data subject's vital interests, and the data subject is physically incapable of giving consent;
 - 6.2.2.4 processing relates to personal data which are manifestly made public by the data subject;

- 6.2.2.5 the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or
 - 6.2.2.6 the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.
- 6.3 Before processing any sensitive personal information, staff must notify the Data Protection Officer of the proposed processing, in order that the Data Protection Officer may assess whether the processing complies with the criteria noted above.
- 6.4 Sensitive personal information will not be processed until:
- 6.4.1 the assessment referred to in paragraph 6.3 has taken place; and
 - 6.4.2 the individual has been properly informed (by way of a privacy notice or otherwise) of the nature of the processing, the purposes for which it is being carried out and the legal basis for it.
- 6.5 The Council will not carry out automated decision-making (including profiling) based on any individual's sensitive personal information.
- 6.6 The Council's data protection Privacy Notices set out the types of sensitive personal information that the Council processes by Service, what it is used for and the lawful basis for the processing
- 6.7 In relation to sensitive personal information, the Council will comply with the procedures set out in paragraphs 6.8 and 6.9 below to make sure that it complies with the data protection principles set out in paragraph 4 above.
- 6.8 During the recruitment process: the HR department, with guidance from the Data Protection Officer will ensure that (except where the law permits otherwise):
- 6.8.1 during the short-listing, interview and decision-making stages, no questions are asked relating to sensitive personal information, e.g. race or ethnic origin, trade union membership or health;
 - 6.8.2 if sensitive personal information is received, e.g. the applicant provides it without being asked for it within his or her CV or during the interview, no record is kept of it and any reference to it is immediately deleted or redacted;

6.8.3 any completed equal opportunities monitoring form is kept separate from the individual's application form, and not be seen by the person shortlisting, interviewing or making the recruitment decision;

6.8.4 we will not ask health questions in connection with recruitment OR only ask health questions once an offer of employment has been made.

6.9 During employment: the HR department, with guidance from the Data Protection Officer will process:

6.9.1 health information for the purposes of administering sick pay, keeping sickness absence records, monitoring staff attendance and facilitating employment-related health and sickness benefits;

6.9.2 sensitive personal information for the purposes of equal opportunities monitoring and pay equality reporting. Where possible, this information will be anonymised; and

6.9.3 trade union membership information for the purposes of staff administration and administering 'check off'.

7. CRIMINAL RECORDS INFORMATION

Criminal records information will be processed in accordance with the Council's policies and procedures.

8. DATA PROTECTION IMPACT ASSESSMENTS (DPIAs)

8.1 Where processing is likely to result in a high risk to an individual's data protection rights (e.g. where the Council is planning to use a new form of technology), we will, before commencing the processing, carry out a DPIA to assess:

8.1.1 whether the processing is necessary and proportionate in relation to its purpose;

8.1.2 the risks to individuals; and

8.1.3 what measures can be put in place to address those risks and protect personal information.

8.2 Before any new form of technology is introduced, the manager responsible should therefore contact the Data Protection Officer in order that a DPIA can be carried out.

8.3 During the course of any DPIA, the employer will seek the advice of the Data Protection Officer and the views of a representative group of employees and any other relevant stakeholders.

9. DOCUMENTATION AND RECORDS

9.1 We will keep written records of processing activities which are high risk, i.e. which may result in a risk to individuals' rights and freedoms or involve sensitive personal information or criminal records information, including:

9.1.1 the name and details of the employer's organisation (and where applicable, of other controllers, the employer's representative and DPO);

9.1.2 the purposes of the processing;

9.1.3 a description of the categories of individuals and categories of personal data;

9.1.4 categories of recipients of personal data;

9.1.5 where possible, retention schedules; and

9.1.6 where possible, a description of technical and organisational security measures.

9.2 As part of our record of processing activities we document, or link to documentation, on:

9.2.1 information required for privacy notices;

9.2.2 records of consent;

9.2.3 controller-processor contracts;

9.2.4 the location of personal information;

9.2.5 DPIAs; and

9.2.6 records of data breaches.

9.3 If we process sensitive personal information or criminal records information, we will keep written records of:

9.3.1 the relevant purpose(s) for which the processing takes place, including (where required) why it is necessary for that purpose;

9.3.2 the lawful basis for our processing; and

9.3.3 whether we retain and erase the personal information in accordance with our policy document and, if not, the reasons for not following our policy.

9.4 We will conduct regular reviews of the personal information we process and update our documentation accordingly. This may include:

9.4.1 carrying out information audits to find out what personal information the Council holds;

9.4.2 distributing questionnaires and talking to staff across the Council to get a more complete picture of our processing activities; and

9.4.3 reviewing our policies, procedures, contracts and agreements to address areas such as retention, security and data sharing.

9.5 We document our processing activities in electronic form so we can add, remove and amend information easily.

10. PRIVACY NOTICE

10.1 The Council will issue privacy notices from time to time, informing you about the personal information that we collect and hold relating to you, how you can expect your personal information to be used and for what purposes.

10.2 We will take appropriate measures to provide information in privacy notices in a concise, transparent, intelligible and easily accessible form, using clear and plain language.

11. INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

11.1 You (in common with other data subjects) have the following rights in relation to your personal information:

11.1.1 to be informed about how, why and on what basis that information is processed—see the Council's Privacy notice];

11.1.2 to obtain confirmation that your information is being processed and to obtain access to it and certain other information, by making a subject access request—see the Council's Subject Access Request Policy;

11.1.3 to have data corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete;

11.1.4 to have data erased if it is no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was originally collected/processed, or if there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing (this is sometimes known as 'the right to be forgotten');

11.1.5 to restrict the processing of personal information where the accuracy of the information is contested, or the processing is unlawful (but you do not want the data to be erased), or where the employer no longer needs the personal information but you require the data to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim; and

11.1.6 to restrict the processing of personal information temporarily where you do not think it is accurate (and the employer is verifying whether it is accurate), or where you have objected to the processing (and the employer is considering whether the organisation's legitimate grounds override your interests).

11.2 If you wish to exercise any of the rights in paragraphs 11.1.3 to 11.1.6, please contact The Data Protection Officer.

12. INDIVIDUAL OBLIGATIONS

- 12.1 Individuals are responsible for helping the Council keep their personal information up to date. You should let the HR department know if the information you have provided to the Council changes, for example if you move house or change details of the bank or building society account to which you are paid. Alternatively, you can update your own personal information on a secure basis via the Council's intranet.
- 12.2 You may have access to the personal information of other members of staff, suppliers and customers or clients of the Council in the course of your employment or engagement. If so, the Council expects you to help meet its data protection obligations to those individuals. For example, you should be aware that they may also enjoy the rights set out in paragraph 11.1 above.
- 12.3 If you have access to personal information, you must:
- 12.3.1 only access the personal information that you have authority to access, and only for authorised purposes;
 - 12.3.2 only allow other Council staff to access personal information if they have appropriate authorisation;
 - 12.3.3 only allow individuals who are not Council staff to access personal information if you have specific authority to do so from the Data Protection Officer;
 - 12.3.4 keep personal information secure (e.g. by complying with rules on access to premises, computer access, password protection and secure file storage and destruction and other precautions set out in the Council's information security policy);
 - 12.3.5 not remove personal information, or devices containing personal information (or which can be used to access it), from the Council's premises unless appropriate security measures are in place (such as pseudonymisation, encryption or password protection) to secure the information and the device; and
 - 12.3.6 not store personal information on local drives or on personal devices that are used for work purposes.

12.4 You should contact the Data Protection Officer if you are concerned or suspect that one of the following has taken place (or is taking place or likely to take place):

12.4.1 processing of personal data without a lawful basis for its processing or, in the case of sensitive personal information, without one of the conditions in paragraph 6.2.2 being met;

12.4.2 any data breach as set out in paragraph 15.1 below;

12.4.3 access to personal information without the proper authorisation;

12.4.4 personal information not kept or deleted securely;

12.4.5 removal of personal information, or devices containing personal information (or which can be used to access it), from the Council's premises without appropriate security measures being in place;

12.4.6 any other breach of this policy or of any of the data protection principles set out in paragraph 4.1 above.

13. INFORMATION SECURITY

13.1 The Council will use appropriate technical and organisational measures in accordance with the Council's policies to keep personal information secure, and in particular to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage. These may include:

13.1.1 making sure that, where possible, personal information is pseudonymised or encrypted;

13.1.2 ensuring the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of processing systems and services;

13.1.3 ensuring that, in the event of a physical or technical incident, availability and access to personal information can be restored in a timely manner;
and

13.1.4 a process for regularly testing, assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of technical and organisational measures for ensuring the security of the processing.

13.2 Where the Council uses external organisations to process personal information on its behalf, additional security arrangements need to be implemented in contracts with those organisations to safeguard the security of personal information. In particular, contracts with external organisations must provide that:

13.2.1 the organisation may act only on the written instructions of the Council;

13.2.2 those processing the data are subject to a duty of confidence;

13.2.3 appropriate measures are taken to ensure the security of processing;

13.2.4 sub-contractors are only engaged with the prior consent of the Council and under a written contract;

13.2.5 the organisation will assist the Council in providing subject access and allowing individuals to exercise their rights in relation to data protection;

13.2.6 the organisation will assist the Council in meeting its obligations in relation to the security of processing, the notification of data breaches and data protection impact assessments;

13.2.7 the organisation will delete or return all personal information to the Council as requested at the end of the contract; and 13.2.8 the organisation will submit to audits and inspections, provide the Council with whatever information it needs to ensure that they are both meeting their data protection obligations, and tell the Council immediately if it is asked to do something infringing data protection law.

13.3 Before any new agreement involving the processing of personal information by an external organisation is entered into, or an existing agreement is altered, the relevant staff must seek approval of its terms by the Data Protection Officer.

14. STORAGE AND RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

14.1 Personal information (and sensitive personal information) will be kept securely in accordance with the Council's information security policy.

14.2 Personal information (and sensitive personal information) should not be retained for any longer than necessary. The length of time over which data should be retained will depend upon the circumstances, including the reasons why the personal information was obtained. Staff should follow the Council's records retention policy which set out the relevant retention period, or the criteria that should be used to determine the retention period. Where there is any uncertainty, staff should consult with the Data Protection Officer.

14.3 Personal information (and sensitive personal information) that is no longer required will be deleted permanently from our information systems and any hard copies will be destroyed securely.

15. DATA BREACHES

15.1 A data breach may take many different forms, for example:

15.1.1 loss or theft of data or equipment on which personal information is stored;

15.1.2 unauthorised access to or use of personal information either by a member of staff or third party;

15.1.3 loss of data resulting from an equipment or systems (including hardware and software) failure;

15.1.4 human error, such as accidental deletion or alteration of data;

15.1.5 unforeseen circumstances, such as a fire or flood;

15.1.6 deliberate attacks on IT systems, such as hacking, viruses or phishing scams; and

The Council will:

15.1.7 make the required report of a data breach to the Information Commissioner's Office without undue delay and, where possible within 72 hours of becoming aware of it, if it is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals; and

15.1.8 notify the affected individuals if a data breach is likely to result in a high risk to their rights and freedoms and notification is required by law.

16. INTERNAL DATA TRANSFERS

The Council will not transfer personal information outside the European Economic Area (EEA), which comprises the countries in the European Union and Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway.

17. TRAINING

The Council will ensure that staff are adequately trained regarding their data protection responsibilities. Individuals whose roles require regular access to personal information, or who are responsible for implementing this policy or responding to subject access requests under this policy, will receive additional training to help them understand their duties and how to comply with them.

18. CONSEQUENCES OF FAILING TO COMPLY

18.1 The Council takes compliance with this policy very seriously. Failure to comply with the policy:

18.1.1 puts at risk the individuals whose personal information is being processed;
and

18.1.2 carries the risk of significant civil and criminal sanctions for the individual and the Council; and 18.1.3 may, in some circumstances, amount to a criminal offence by the individual.

18.2 Because of the importance of this policy, an employee's failure to comply with any requirement of it may lead to disciplinary action under our procedures, and this action may result in dismissal for gross misconduct. If a non-employee breaches this policy, they may have their contract terminated with immediate effect.

18.3 If you have any questions or concerns about anything in this policy, do not hesitate to contact The Data Protection Officer.
